

Okanogan County Residents that have been impacted by the Cold Springs Fire can find assistance and services at the following locations:

Wildfire Recovery:

For resources such as assistance with livestock and farm claims, or post-fire landscape treatment options, contact the Okanogan Conservation District (509) 422-0855 or visit their website at

<https://www.okanogancd.org/wildfire-recovery>

The After the Fire website provides additional information and resources for wildfire recovery, including personal assistance for homeowners, business owners and communities - <https://afterthefirewa.org/>

If you are a Washington Resident living in Okanogan County, and are unable to return home due to loss of property, you may qualify for the Disaster Cash Assistance Program through the Washington State Department of Social and Health Services. For more information, visit their website at

<https://www.dshs.wa.gov/esa/emergency-assistance-programs/disaster-cash-assistance-program>

Long Term Recovery:

If you suffered losses in the Palmer, Cold Springs or Pearl Hill Fires and would like to sign up for case management support, contact:

Jessica Rounds

Lead Disaster Case Manager

Okanogan County Long Term Recovery Group,

jessicaocdcm@gmail.com or (509) 846-5101